

FINE OVATION FOR JUDGE McDONOUGH

Ex-Secretary of State Entertained at Dinner by Noted Men in Labor and Irish National Circles.

Former Secretary of State John T. McDonough, now Supreme Court Justice in the Philippines, was the guest of honor at a notable dinner on Saturday night, given by his many friends in Irish, Catholic and labor circles. The dinner took place on the roof garden of the Hotel Vendome, and was the most brilliant of all the entertainments which have been given to Justice McDonough during his present visit home.

P. J. McNulty, the County President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, presided, and at his right sat Justice McDonough. Others at the head table included some prominent men as T. V. Powderly, Samuel Gompers, Timothy D. Sullivan, J. J. Clancy, and Samuel B. Donnelly. Many members of the bench and bar were also guests.

Mr. McNulty made a brief speech welcoming the guest of honor back to New York and expressing his joy at his return. He spoke of Judge McDonough's public services and of his service in the Philippines and of what was being done generally there by the United States Government. His speech was of great interest to the dinner, as Justice McDonough is a keen observer and tells things interestingly.

Mr. Powderly spoke briefly and spoke also were made by Sam Gompers, Tim Healy, Samuel B. Donnelly and others.

The dinner was a most elaborate one and the roof garden was prettily decorated for the occasion.

COURT OPPOSES
SPECIAL JURIES

Judge McMahon Disapproves of Assistant District Attorney Clarke's Request in Unimportant Criminal Cases.

Judge Martin T. McMahon in General Sessions to-day expressed his disapproval of the frequency with which District Attorney Jerome and his assistants ask for special juries to try unimportant cases.

Assistant District Attorney Clarke to-day asked that two special juries be summoned to try two murder cases during the present term of court. He said that with a special jury the trials would be accelerated and there would be less chance of a mistrial.

Lawyer Abraham Levy, counsel for Henry Berg, one of the accused, opposed the motion, stating that his case did not come within the purview of the "special jury" law, as it was "neither important" nor had attracted "undue newspaper notoriety."

"I don't see why you want a special jury for this case," Judge McMahon said to Mr. Clarke. "I am opposed to such juries unless cases involve some intricate points or have obtained great publicity. I don't see the reason why the taxpayer should be burdened with the expense involved in empanelling a special jury, when any ordinary twelve men could pass upon the evidence."

It costs nearly $2,000 to empanel a special jury.

Judge Cowing, in Part I. of General Sessions, a week ago, refused the request of the District Attorney for a special jury on similar grounds.

10,000 dozen yards of 50c. Val. laces at, per dozen, 25c.

THE mere fact that French Val. laces are so popular for trimming those dainty stunning Summer costumes would make this sale a veritable sensation, for to be frank with you it's the finest assembly ever shown in New York. But with the added incentive of an actual saving of one-half it will be the greatest bargain furor of the season. Here's the news tersely told.

25c. for dozen yards of 50c. Val. laces.

39c. for dozen yards of 75c. Val. laces.

55c. for dozen yards of $1.00 Val. laces.

Of course we have the insertions to match, and we want you to understand that this assembly of laces embodies all of the newest effects. You can't imagine what bewitching effects are possible in the trimmings of your Summer costumes till you've seen them.

25c. Don't think for one moment that we're taking a loss on these laces, or that it's a lot we want to get rid of by reducing the price. Nothing of the kind—they're an entire new importation that haven't been in our store three days. Came just in time to start the sale Monday, but with such a colossal gathering we'll have plenty for tomorrow. You'll find them on the main floor, bargain square, where plenty of extra clerks are ready to attend your wants.

The importer of these laces, who, by the way, is the foremost in New York, gave us to understand that if we cared to attempt to handle 120,000 yards at one time he would sell them to us at half price. We took them, convinced they would form the season's most popular sale.

SIMPSON CRAWFORD CO.

Great sale: 10,000 yards of embroidered flouncings at 10c.

THIS is positively the first time that Simpson Crawford Co. have ever offered 35c embroidered flouncings at 10c., and therefore it is the first time they have ever been offered as such a wonderful bargain by any store, for everybody knows that our embroidery sales in the past have been greater by far than any held elsewhere. The news is so good that to tell it concisely in these extraordinary low prices which will be of keenest interest to every smart dresser, as well as high-class dressmakers.

10c for embroideries up to 35c. 25c for embroideries up to 75c.

15c for embroideries up to 50c. 39c for embroideries up to 1.00.

When you stop to think that Simpson Crawford Co. do not sell 10c. embroideries the bargain importance will appeal to you the more strongly, for you will realize that these values are exactly as stated. They are just the kind of embroideries most in demand at present.

Counter sample pieces all at 1/4 and 1/2 regular prices—Fine Baby Embroidery—Widths for Corset Covers—Odd Widths Fine Nainsook Embroidery—Widths for Dress Purposes—Odd Widths fine Swiss Embroidery—Widths for Children's Dresses—Odd Widths fine Cambric Embroidery—Shirt-Waist Embroideries—Skirt Bandings—Waist Bandings—Embroideries for Linenier Hats.

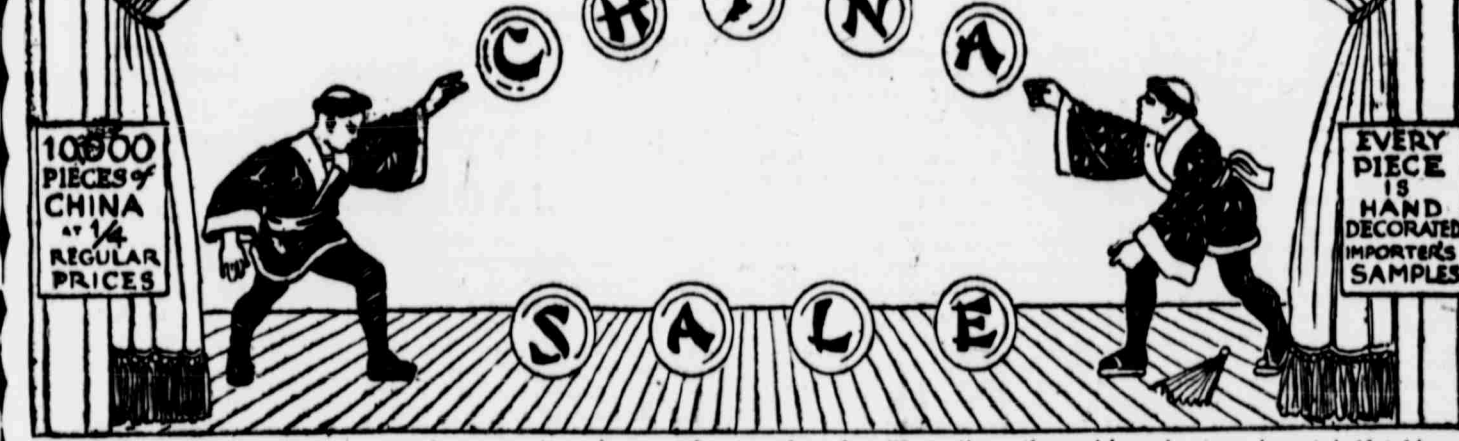

New York's leading importer had this assembly left after filling his season's orders, and being anxious to clear space for new importations he made to us a proposition like we make to you—thousands of yards of embroidered flouncings at about 1/2 the regular prices.

SIMPSON CRAWFORD CO.

That great 1/4 china sale is now at its best

NEVER had such a large crowd in our china section before—don't seem possible that we could ever again have such a large concourse of enthusiastic buyers—still the crowds are sure to come as long as these unprecedented values last, for it's a sale that stands without a parallel in the annals of china selling.

One-Fourth Regular Prices. Just take a few moments and read over these extraordinary values and see if you'll not be eager to help swell the throng to-morrow.

We want to impress upon you, however, that when we give you these few illustrations, the real bargain story is not half told—no, not even a tenth part of it, as you'll see when you come.

This is indeed a great saving opportunity for those who want china for Summer homes, because it gives you the chance to buy ware good enough for the very most finely appointed table at the price of common white china.
